World-class service of Compass Group profiled on Mining Down Under QLD

The world-class catering and support services delivery of Compass Group's dedicated remote sector brands – ESS Support Services Worldwide (ESS), Omega Security Services and DeltaFM – have been profiled on the Australian mining and resource television series, Mining Down Under QLD.

Eureka Village – a mining village located 810 kilometres northwest of Brisbane – was chosen for the Mining Down Under QLD segment because it showcases the extensive services that ESS, DeltaFM and Omega Security Services provide as well as the variety of occupations Compass Group can offer.

Filming was completed at Eureka over two days, with many ESS, DeltaFM and Omega employees interviewed about their roles on site and their experiences. Occupations featured in the segment include positions in catering, housekeeping, reception, ground maintenance, site management and security, in addition to the work of ActiveLife Coaches, who deliver ESS's onsite health and nutrition program.

As Mining Down Under Queensland is broadcast around regional areas of the state, the segment is a great way to raise awareness of ESS, DeltaFM and Omega and the work they do in providing a comfortable 'home away from home' for residents.

Thanks must go to the great! team members at Eureka for welcoming the film crew into their busy schedule.
